GETTING READY TO LAUNCH!

The Gazebo Gazette recently traveled to the Kennedy Space Center, Cape Canaveral, Florida, with some fellow Pass Christian-ers, who were in town for the launch of their cousin, Kay Hire, to the International Space Station. Pictured from left to right: Nancy Lang of Winston-Salem, NC (originally from Pass Christian); Jane Byrne of Pass Christian; David Byrne, Jr., of Atlanta (originally from Pass Christian); and Andrea Byrne of Atlanta.

Distance from Pass Christian: 544 miles! (P.S. The International Space Station is 220 miles from Earth, but we didn't make it that far!)

PASS HISTORY: Researched by Robin Rafferty

A Trip To Pass Christian — 1840

*Trip to Pass Christian
July 21, 1840
Daily Picayune
www.genealogybank.com*

"On Saturday evening last the steamboat Echo, Captain Walker, left the railroad with a crowd of passengers, among whom were the 'Governor' and suite.

"Nothing very remarkable occurred on the passage; but if we had time we might go into detail and mention many little incidents which occurred at the Pass on Sunday.

"We might give an account of a romantic bath by moonlight at 3 o'clock in the morning. We might tell of the thousands of fish that were caught, some good and some good for nothing. We might speak of the ladies and the music.

"We might say much about the good breakfast and sumptuous fish dinner, and the delicious wines; of the alternations and fine arrangements of the 'New Brighton Hotel,' since Shipman has taken it; of the good management of Co.

Milford, who has the direction of things in genera.

"We might write about the billiard tables and ten pin alleys, the bar-room and polite bar-keepers. We might tell a good joke of how the 'Governor' was ran out of the woods by a bevy of mosquitoes, and how he tore the tail for his coat in making his escape.

"We might speak of several 'Very good songs, which were very well sung, by jolly companions, every one.'"

*Letter To The EditorIN MEMORIAM: Gary Reid

"The Pass" has lost one of its most selfless Relief workers that helped so many of us recover from Hurricane Katrina in one way or another. James Garrett (Gary) Reid died while fighting a major battle against liver cancer on January 31, 2010.

Gary got here right after Katrina and immediately went to work. He did searches for bodies and then opened up a free food tent at the Pod at the Fox's Den. Gary never turned anyone away that was hungry. He kept track of the donated food that came in so he could prepare food for the helpers as well as those who were hungry, three times a day, seven days a week for months. He put in 14-16 hour days and never complained.

After the POD was finally closed, Gary opened "Pass Christian Community Outreach." At first there were just two of us, but as time progressed we were so busy that we ended up with a staff of five. Gary was responsible for getting the building that later became The Gray Hut moved to the Park so that it would be easily accessible for everyone. His priority was taking care of our own First Responders. He also paid for free internet service for the computers he got donated that was open to anyone. He also paid for an internet connection for AmeriCorps as well as Campus Crusade for Christ.

There isn't enough space to tell of all the great and wonderful things Gary did ... Gary was not only my Boss but a truly great friend. I can honestly say that I never worked for a finer man or had a finer man as a friend.

*Jack Trepagnier,
